Applications invited for appointment of whole-time members of Grievance Appellate Committee(s) to consider appeals against decisions of Grievance Officers of intermediaries, including social media intermediaries, on complaints of violation of the Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021

The Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021<sup>1</sup> made under the Information Technology Act, 2000 require intermediaries, including social media intermediaries, to observe due diligence while discharging their duties. Such due diligence includes the requirement that the intermediary shall make reasonable efforts to cause its users not to host, display, upload, modify, publish, transmit, store, update or share certain types of information. It also requires that the intermediary have a Grievance Officer to whom users or victims may complain about violation of the rules. A person aggrieved by a decision of the Grievance Officer may prefer an appeal to the Grievance Appellate Committee, consisting of a chairperson and two whole time members. The committee shall adopt an online dispute resolution mechanism, wherein the entire appeal process, from filing of appeal to the decision thereof, shall be conducted through digital mode. Government may establish multiple such committees.

Applications are invited from eligible candidates for the position of whole-time member of Grievance Appellate Committee(s).

The remuneration of the member shall consist of a consolidated pay of ₹1,75,000 per month and a fixed allowance of ₹75,000 per month in lieu of house and car facilities. In addition, reimbursement of health insurance premium up to ₹50,000 per annum shall be admissible only to those members who, at the time of joining and during the period of appointment, are not covered under any group or private health insurance policy or medical facility extended by their previous employer. The detailed applications along with terms and conditions and the application form are available on <https://www.meity.gov.in/>

Last date for receipt of applications is 27th December 2025 [15 days from the date of publication of the advertisement]. Applicants may send by email the scanned copy of their duly completed application form, along with their curriculum vitae, to Group Coordinator (Cyber Law Division), Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology at gccyberlaw@meity.gov.in.
